

Introducing
Alonso Sanchez, Attorney at Law

FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT.

FATCA
CONSULTANTS

Alonso is a senior presenter of the program. He has represented a variety of domestic and international clients in the area of domestic and international taxation, corporate law, estate-planning and wealth preservation.

Alonso has experience in stock and asset acquisitions, including tax-free reorganizations. He has worked extensively with investment funds, investors and high net worth individuals on tax efficient structures for inbound and outbound investments. Many of these transactions have required the creation of tax-efficient structures that navigate the requirements of multiple taxing jurisdictions.

Alonso advises on a wide array of tax issues, including those related to corporations, partnerships, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, FIRPTA and treaty benefits. He also works on the tax aspects of restructuring, joint ventures, and a broad range of other matters.

Alonso earned a Bachelor of Science in Finance from the University of Minnesota's Carlson School of Management and his law degree from American University's Washington College of Law. In his spare time he enjoys movies and mountain biking.